St. Patty's Comedy Night Dinner & Laughter

Starring-Headliner

Tim started his comedy career as a senior in high school and has never looked back. 18 years and over 2,500 performances later, he is now headlining clubs and colleges throughout the U.S. and Canada. By the time Tim was 18, he joined an improv group with future comedy stars Kevin James & Adam Ferrara. Since then, Tim has appeared on MTV, NBC, Comedy Central, as well as written for Saturday Night Live's 'Weekend Update.' Tim caters his act so that his material appeals to everybody: mixing wild characters, physical comedy, and clever original ideas.

Featuring Act

Stacey Prussman is an uninhibited, native New Yorker that has become a major player in the comedy circuit after years of working professionally in theater, television and film. Stacey was well known for the lead role of Dori in the hit Off-Broadway show Grandma Sylvia's Funeral. She has recently filmed a TV pilot with A & E and well as The Stacey Prussman show with Sparkway Productions. Stacey's numerous appearance on The Howard Stern Radio Show and the E! channel built her quite a following. She has been a guest on several XM/Sirius radio shows. Stacey has been headlining clubs and colleges throughout the United States and Canada. Her unique stories combined with brutal honesty and infectious energy has kept audiences laughing.
